The Honorable
John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
McLean, Virginia

My dear Mr. McCone:

The enclosed invitation for you to join the National Civil Service League at the Head Table of our Career Service Awards dinner to be held at the Washington, D. C. Sheraton-Park Hotel on April 14, 1964 indicates that we will be honoring Mr. [REDACTED] Jr., who was nominated by you for this award and selected by our Awards Judges.

FOIAb3b

We are writing Mr. Lay today advising him of this honor and inviting him to join us at the Head Table. We would appreciate it if you would make such arrangements as are necessary to enable him to attend.

Though we are asking that no announcement be made of this Award at this time, we are planning to make this tenth annual presentation even more impressive and widely publicized than our previous Awards programs. We hope this way to make an even more significant contribution to raising the prestige of the public service.

The Civil Service Commission, which is again cooperating in this effort, is helping us arrange a special luncheon at Commission Headquarters, 1900 E Street, for 12 noon on March 12, 1964. We would like to have your Public Information Officer and Personnel Director attend this luncheon as our guests to arrange for the most successful and best publicized program possible.

We would appreciate your assistance by inviting these representatives to join us for lunch and by giving this Tenth Annual Career Awards program your strong endorsement.

Sincerely yours,

NATIONAL CIVIL SERVICE LEAGUE
